++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely cloudy with occasional light rain and drizzle.

Today:
Generally cloudy, with only limited bright or sunny spells possible for the far west of the region. Many places will start dry, but through this morning outbreaks of light rain and drizzle will develop, these becoming more widespread this afternoon. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Overcast with further outbreaks of light rain and drizzle, especially for eastern areas. Lowest temperatures for the far west of the region, where early clear spells may occur. Mild. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Sunday:
Overcast at first with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle, these generally dying away as slightly brighter conditions develop. However, though the afternoon a few light showers could then develop. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday perhaps a chilly start with patchy fog, this slowly clearing, then dry with some sunny spells. Tuesday largely cloudy, hill fog and occasional drizzle. Wednesday cooler, dry, rather cloudy.
